

LIFETIME INSURANCE POLICY

Eliminating Stinkin' Thinkin' To Avoid Hardening of the Attitudes

Being of sound and ambitious mind, and having an intense desire to live a long, happy, useful, productive, fun-filled, rewarding life, I hereby agree to accept all the joys and benefits of this Lifetime Insurance Policy which is designed to eliminate stinkin' thinkin' and avoid the deadliest of all diseases-hardening of the attitudes.

Because I am a mature and responsible person who wishes to live until I die, I understand that by accepting the benefits I fully expect to "enjoy the premiums" by accepting the opportunities and responsibilities that are an integral part of the policy.

Since I know the skeptics and critics are neither secure, happy, nor even welcome in most places, and since faith is the cornerstone of happiness, I hereby, in faith, affix my signature, which guarantees that I will follow through on the procedures Zig Ziglar is going to outline so that I might enjoy all the benefits herein described.

INFAITH,HOPEANDLOVE

Yours forever
